

DOCUMENTING CONTINUING COMPETENCY

NEW SECTION

WAC 246-840-201 Continuing competency purpose statement.

Patients, families, and communities expect safe, competent, and compassionate nursing care. These rules establish a self-directed continuing competency program that includes participation in active practice, self-assessment and reflection, and continuing nursing education for registered nurses and licensed practical nurses, as a mechanism to help keep patients safe and improve nursing practice.

NEW SECTION

(1) Active nursing practice means engagement in paid, unpaid, or volunteer activity performing acts requiring a nursing license as described in RCW 18.79.040, 18.79.050, or 18.79.060. A nurse achieves continuing competency through active practice, self-assessment and reflection, and continuing nursing education.

and enrich nurses' contributions to quality health care and his or her pursuit of professional career goals. The education hours should relate to the nurse's area of professional practice or areas identified through self-assessment and reflection for professional growth and development. There are various types of continuing nursing education activities. Some involve participant attendance where the pace of the activity is determined by the provider who plans and schedules the activity. Others are designed for completion by the learner, independently, at the learner's own pace and at a time of the learner's choice. Continuing nursing education hours may be obtained through mentorship, certification, presentations, and specialty certification.
